Foreword

A scene at the dedication of our new elementary school

"Adventures" is the theme of the 1954 Panorama.
It was chosen because we feel it reflects
the spirit of our school.
In the elementary school
it is the adventure
of learning to read,
and write.
In high school it is
the wonderful adventure
of learning to live
as adults,
in an adult world.

Everything we have done
or learned here
has been a great adventure.
Now as the Seniors are ready to go on to even greater experiences,
we all wish to say,
"Success to you."
This is your book,
the story
of your
"Adventures" at Spencerport Central.

Dedication

BECAUSE of the unending help she has given our class, because of her willingness to help anyone with any problem at any time, and because of the tremendous job she has done in setting up the Guidance Office we have now at Spencerport Central, We, the class of 1954 and the Panorama staff, dedicate our 1954 Panorama to Miss K. Louise Kenefick.

Miss Kenefick came to Spencerport in 1947. She taught 9th and 10th grade English until 1952 when she was made 11th and 12th grade English teacher. This year, largely because of her efforts, we have a Guidance Office of which she is the head. The Seniors especially will remember her for her wit, friendliness and understanding.

We express our gratitude, appreciation and best wishes to someone we feel has done an exceptional job for us. We hope she will continue to teach here for many, many years to come.

Miss Kenefick and Ethel Williams.

A friendly, happy atmosphere, free from tension, fosters steady growth.

Reading is the most important tool of all. Elementary School children use their new library extensively for this.

A child entering elementary school needs experience in social living.

Singing together is another way of working together.

The Junior Echo

publishes the children's own stories and articles in the Elementary School.

Grade school art serves as an outlet for young imaginations.

Learning responsibilities and citizenship is the result of the Elementary School Lawn Patrol.

Grade School children obtain great pleasure from singing together.

Good sportsmanship in the grades is the foundation for good sportsmanship in Life.

A good Library Club in the grades helps children to appreciate the value of books and literature.

Elmgrove School

IN the brick school on Elmgrove Road, the first and second graders learn their "reading, writing and arithmetic." They also have fun, as the picture shows. Their teachers are Mrs. Dimock and Mrs. Maurer. Elmgrove is our only district school, so the children come to Spencerport to further their education.

CLASS HISTORY

THE class of 1954 began their adventures at Spencerport in September 1950. Our career as a class didn't get started, however, until January when we elected Rena Anderson President, Jack Adams Vice President, Joan Maier Secretary Treasurer, Elinor Hawkins and Phil Hall social chairmen, and upholding the Freshmen rights at the Student Council were Bill Hiscock and Celia Morgenberger. Our first project as a class was an eighth period dance, "The Freshmen Swing." We charged one cent for each size shoe a person wore. Pity the poor Senior boys who wore a size twelve! We won the Competitive Assembly prize for that year with an imaginary trip through the United States. In March, however, our class was greatly saddened by the death of Patty DeFisher, our classmate, who was killed by a fall from a horse. A shadow fell over our class for some time. We shall remember her sweet personality and smile for years to come.

Our Sophomore year started off with our class elections. We elected Rena Anderson President and Jack Adams Vice President, for a change. Eugene Lewis was in charge of money and notes. Bev Reitz and Lee Drake were in charge of our social business. Celia Morgenberger and Bill Hiscock had done such a good job in Council that we sent them back for another term. Next came our dance "Winter Wonderland." Miss Verbridge and Mr. Farnsworth were our advisors as we sailed toward our Junior year and the prestige of being "upperclassmen."

In our Junior year Gene Lewis pounded the gavel at class meetings and Jean Chivers was his assistant in calling the meetings together. Celia Morgenberger kept the records and Joan Maier kept the money. Jack Adams and Ninalee Haughton were the Social Chairmen, and holding the Junior influence at the Student Council were Barb Willsea, Don Hoag and Bev Reitz. We made a fortune (almost) selling Christmas cards and we also had the thrill of getting our class rings. Our really big project was our Ball, "April in Paris." Mr. Jordan and Miss Verbridge were our class advisors. At last we were ready to begin our Big Adventure, our Senior year.

As usual the year began with class elections. Jack Adams was elected chief of all operations and Rena Anderson his assistant chief. Celia Morgenberger kept the records again (because no one could read her notes from the year before) and Bob Mroczek, our mental giant, guarded the purse strings. Bev Reitz and Bob Branch were Social Chairmen. Gene Lewis, Barb Willsea and Millie Rympa were our voice in the Student Council. Our Senior Play, "Mr. Coed" was a big success financially as well as artistically. We made another fortune, selling stationery this time. Mr. Ferris and Miss Kenefick were our advisors. As we look back on these four years of adventures, we realize how much they have meant to us and how we have grown from silly, eager Freshmen to mature, we think, but still eager Seniors.

Senior Play

ONE of the most important events in the senior year is the Senior Play. This year the class of '54 presented the three act play, "Mr. Coed." Eugene Lewis took the lead as Lotus Smith, a cowboy. He was sent to the exclusive girls' school, Cedarhill, by his Grandmother who had never seen him, Mrs. Colgate-Brewster (Celia Morgenberger). In order to stay in the school, Lotus dresses as a girl aided by a student, Emily Manning (Rena Anderson), and the janitor (Bob Mroczek). Complications are added when Mrs. Brewster comes to the school bringing the English poet, Gilbert Glyer (Phil Hall), as a beau for her "granddaughter." The play ends happily, though, and Cedarhill is made co-educational to everyone's great satisfaction.

Activities

Student Council

Standing: Holbrook, McGowan, Lewis, Ciranni, Stroh, Willsea, Davison, Rypma, Strassner, Caton. Seated: Sleight, Hiscock, Hawkins, Schum, Brower.

THE Student Council has become one of Spencerport's most active organizations. This year they revised the Student Council Constitution, set up an effective noon hour activity schedule, planned the Competitive Assemblies, speaking contest and Spencerport's first Students' Day. In an average meeting they may talk about everything from the problem of students cutting in the lunch line to better teacher-student relationships.

Each class has its own representatives. Senior and Junior have three, Sophomore and Freshman two, seventh and eighth grade two. Everyone from every class works together for the good of the whole school, and that is what makes the "Council" the successful organization that it is today.

President . . . . . Bill Hiscock

Vice President. . . . . Roger Sleight

Secretary-Treasurer . . . . . Elinor Hawkins

Girls' Speaking Contest

THE Girls' Speaking Contest was held last spring. The girls gave their selections in assembly and were judged on the basis of delivery, memorization and content. The prizes were: First, Charlotte Jones, Second, Sylvia Frank and Third, Elizabeth Payne.

Jr. Town Meeting

EACH year, four students from Spencerport High School prepare speeches on a subject of their choice and present them on a transcribed radio program. This year the subject was "Statehood for Alaska." Bill and Barb took the negative stand and Gene and Mary took the affirmative.

Seated: Mary Hawkins, Bill Hilsdorf, Barb Willsea. Standing: Gene Lewis.

Radio Club

THE Radio Club this year has been working on a signal generator with which they will service radios. For anyone who knows what a service generator is, who likes to learn about radio problems and incidentally to solve a few, this is the club to join.

Standing: Terry Bassett, Bob Mroczek, Bob Cubitt.
Seated: Mr. Sisson.

Roger Sleight, Mary Hawkins.

Flag Guardians

THE Flag Guardians are selected on the basis of their good citizenship and scholastic achievement. Moreover this doesn't mean that a "brain" will be our Flag Guardian. The person selected must show outstanding qualities of citizenship. His attitude must be willing and his mind alert.

Although this is an honorary title, the Guardians have certain duties which they must perform. Mary and Roger will lead our assemblies throughout the year in the flag salute. Roger also has the added duty of seeing that our Flag is raised and lowered every day.

National Honor Society

SPENCERPORT students of the Junior and Senior classes with exceptional leadership, citizenship, honor and scholarship may receive invitation to join the National Honor Society. They must have an 85% average in their high school subjects.

Panorama Officers

FOR four long, hard months the staffs of the Panorama worked to put out this new yearbook. Then the sales staff took over to sell the copies to the students. For years to come, whenever the members of this staff hear six typewriters going at once, smell the odor of rubber cement, and hear peals of laughter, they will remember the 1954 Panorama. Mrs. Brandaur, Mr. Farnsworth and Miss Pfeiffer were our advisors and Barb Willsea our Editor-in-Chief.

Junior Varsity Basketball

THE J.V. Basketball team is made up of boys who like basketball, and who hope to play varsity basketball. This team plays a regular schedule of games and through this the boys gain valuable knowledge and experience to be used in later years.

Varsity Basketball

THE thrill of the ball pounding against the floor, or as it swishes through the net, can't be beat, and that's what makes basketball the sport it is. The Varsity Basketball team is made up of boys who love basketball. What they lacked in height, they made up in fight, and we always had an exciting team to watch. They played to win, and if they won it was all to their credit, but if they lost, you know they played their best.

UNDER the leadership of Captain Art Ames and Coach Schum, the Spencerport Booters finished the season with a record of three wins, two losses and two ties. Considering the lack of our own field this year, and the number of underclassmen on the team, the future looks bright for next year's team.

Wrestling

WRESTLING is a sport which takes a lot of hard work and time. Push-ups, sit-ups, and jumping jacks get discouraging after a while but in the end it has its rewards. If a wrestler wins his match, the glory is all his own, but if he is defeated, he has no one to blame but himself. The wrestlers, although they have individual matches, work together for a team victory.

A Parent Visits School
